Proposal for a directive
Citation 1

Text proposed by the Commission

Gezien het Verdrag betreffende de werking van de Europese Unie, en met name artikel 114,

Amendment

Het Europees Parlement ondersteunt de intenties van de Commissie, maar kan het voorstel in de huidige vorm niet goedkeuren en verzoekt de Commissie om een nieuw, verder uitgewerkt, voorstel in te dienen op basis van artikel 67 en artikel 83 van het Verdrag betreffende de werking van de Europese Unie.

Justification

Het voorstel van de Commissie borduurt voort op de wettelijke basis van de oorspronkelijke vuurwapenrichtlijn uit 1991, namelijk VWEU artikel 114. Dit artikel betreft de rechtsgrond voor het aanpassen van wetgeving aangaande de interne markt. Aangezien de nieuwe voorstellen primair als doel hebben de bestrijding van terrorisme en georganiseerde criminaliteit te bevorderen, zou de wettelijke basis in dat licht moeten worden aangepast. Daarom zou, in plaats van VWEU artikel 114, VWEU artikelen 67 en 83 als wettelijke basis moeten dienen.

Amendment

(1) Council Directive 91/477/EEC¹⁷ established an accompanying measure for the internal market. It created a balance between on the one hand the undertaking to ensure a certain freedom of movement for some firearms within the Union, and on the other the need to control this freedom using security guarantees suited to this type of product.

Text proposed by the Commission

(2) Em resposta aos recentes atos terroristas que revelaram as lacunas existentes na aplicação da Diretiva 91/477/CEE, especialmente no que se refere à desativação das armas, à convertibilidade e às regras de marcação, a «Agenda Europeia para a Segurança», adotada em abril de 2015, e a Declaração do Conselho de Ministros dos Assuntos Internos, de 29 de agosto de 2015, apelaram à revisão da referida diretiva e à adoção de uma abordagem comum para a desativação das armas de fogo, de modo a impedir a sua reativação e utilização por parte dos criminosos.

Amendment

(2) As alterações à Directiva 91/477/CEE do Conselho, não podem resultar de qualquer associação entre os recentes ataques terroristas e o uso e porte legais de armas na União Europeia, nomeadamente por parte de caçadores, atiradores desportivos e colecionadores. O fabrico, comércio, posse e uso de armas e munições em cumprimento das normas vigentes, traduzem actividades legítimas, importantes do ponto de vista lúdico, desportivo e económico e relevantes para a criação de emprego e riqueza na União Europeia.

Não obstante, a «Agenda Europeia para a Segurança», adotada em abril de 2015, e a Declaração do Conselho de Ministros dos Assuntos Internos, de 29 de agosto de 2015, apelaram à revisão da referida diretiva e à adoção de uma abordagem comum para a desativação das armas de fogo, de modo a impedir a sua reativação e utilização por parte dos criminosos.

Justification

Completely banning legal distance sales of fire arms is a disproportionate measure considering that it can be organised safely through basic controls of the Member States to ensure notably that both the buyer and seller of a fire arm hold a valid license and that there are no other reasons to oppose the transaction.

Justification

A definition of a replica that refers to objects having the external appearance of a firearm and cannot be converted to expel a bullet refers to an object which is not even hypothetically a firearm and thus has no place in the Firearms Directive and should not be covered by it. There is no need in the Directive for provisions covering toys, decorative items etc.. ‘2. This Directive shall not apply to the acquisition or possession of weapons and ammunition, in accordance with national law, by the armed forces, the police, the public authorities. Nor shall it apply to commercial transfers of weapons and ammunition of war.’

Or. en

Justification

The current directive includes a broader list of excluded entities covering notably Museums and collectors, recognised as such by the Member State in whose territory they are established. The commission unfortunately seeks to remove these entities from the exclusion list thus putting major cultural and historical values in Europe at risk without any added value with regards to increasing security.

2. This Directive shall not apply to the acquisition or possession of weapons and ammunition, in accordance with national law, by the armed forces, the police, the public authorities. Nor shall it apply to commercial transfers of weapons and ammunition of war.

Amendment

2. This Directive shall not apply to the acquisition or possession of weapons and ammunition, in accordance with national law, by the armed forces, the police, the public authorities or by collectors and bodies concerned with the cultural and historical aspects of weapons and recognized as such by the Member State in whose territory they are established. Nor shall it apply to commercial transfers of products of the defence industry.

Or. en

Justification

This proposal aims to allow for exceptional authorisation for these bodies, rather than leaving them out of the scope of the Directive, as it is provided for in the current Directive. In the last sentence, we suggest replacing the vague and undefined “weapons and ammunition of war” with the term “products of the defence industry”, which is defined in the Directive 2009/43/EC and which is associated with a complex system of controls and oversight. The derogation, if tied to that Directive’s regime, would serve as a safeguard against any theoretical abuse of that derogation. Given that Directive 2009/43/EC is of a later date than the most recent amendment of the Firearms Directive, this could also be viewed as simple adaptation of the Firearms Directive to later legislation.

Justification

La questione è sostanzialmente terminologica. Al fine di garantire la sicurezza pubblica ciò che deve essere indagato è, da un lato, la capacità tecnica dell'operatore autorizzato, al fine di garantire la safety nella sua attività, mentre, dall'altro, una ulteriore valutazione va effettuata sulle sue qualità personali, di talché esse non siano tali da poter far ipotizzare possibili abusi delle autorizzazioni. L'esame deve essere quindi sulla sua integrità personale, ossia sulle sue qualità come persona, mentre il termine "privata" è fuorviante e potrebbe fare riferimento a elementi inconoscibili alle autorità pubbliche o non connessi alla natura del controllo stesso.

Justification

Appare necessario modificare la dizione del paragrafo al fine di garantire che il suo campo di applicazione sia correttamente definito. Mentre il termine "fornitore" ha una natura prettamente commerciale, la dizione "cedente" comprende anche il soggetto che pratica la cessione a titolo gratuito. È di ogni evidenza che anche questo genere di dati devono essere raccolti e trattati al fine di garantire la tracciabilità.

Or. it

Justification

La questione è sostanzialmente terminologica. Al fine di garantire la sicurezza pubblica ciò che deve essere indagato è, da un lato, la capacità tecnica dell'operatore autorizzato, al fine di garantire la safety nella sua attività, mentre, dall'altro, una ulteriore valutazione va effettuata sulle sue qualità personali, di talché esse non siano tali da poter far ipotizzare possibili abusi delle autorizzazioni. L'esame deve essere quindi sulla sua integrità personale, ossia sulle sue qualità come persona, mentre il termine "privata" è fuorviante e poco esatto, e potrebbe fare riferimento a elementi inconoscibili alle autorità pubbliche o non connessi alla natura del controllo stesso.

(a) are at least 18 years of age, except in relation to the acquisition other than through purchase, and possession of firearms for hunting and target shooting, provided that in that case persons of less than 18 years of age have parental permission, or are under parental guidance or the guidance of an adult with a valid firearms or hunting licence, or are within a licenced or otherwise approved training centre;

Or. en

Justification

The commission has deleted the text, re-introduced by this amendment, without proper justification. The extremely limited and strictly controlled exception allowing Member States to allow certain minors to have fire arms is necessary in the organisation of certain types of educations, notably with regards to forestry. Further it makes no sense to allow these minors to possess fire arms but not permitting the acquisition of the same fire arms. These fire arms are held under strict control.

Justification

The current directive provides an exception which is too broad in its application but removing it completely as suggested by the commission would create major problems for civil defence organisations cooperating with the armed forces of the Member States, and would

Article 1 – paragraph 1 – point 6

Directive 91/477/EEC

Article 6 – paragraph 1

Text proposed by the Commission

Member States shall take all appropriate steps to prohibit the acquisition and the possession of the firearms and ammunition classified in category A and to destroy those firearms and ammunition held in violation of this provision and seized.

Amendment

Member States shall take all appropriate steps to prohibit the acquisition and the possession of the firearms and ammunition classified in category A. In exceptional and duly reasoned cases, the competent authorities may grant authorisations for the acquisition and possession of such firearms and ammunition where this is not contrary to public security or public order.

Or. en

Justification

It should be up to the competent authorities of each Member State to decide in each individual case if an exception should be granted, taking into account the public security and public order. Examples of bodies and persons who should be in duly reasoned cases allowed to acquire and possess category A firearms include forensic experts and forensic institutes, private security businesses and firearms producers. Furthermore, an unequivocal requirement to destroy illegally held firearms and even ammunition after their seizure would in certain cases lead to the destruction of item of cultural or historical value or ones useful or legitimate (e.g. law enforcement) purposes. There is, in particular, absolutely no point for destroying perfectly good ammunition just because it had been held illegally.

Or. en

Justification

It would be contrary to the goal of conservation of cultural and historical heritage to destroy by deactivation the appearance of a firearm being part of that heritage. Therefore, Member States should be allowed to exempt persons or bodies concerned with the cultural and historical aspects of weapons from deactivation of category A firearms. There is also no reason to abolish such cultural and historical activities after the date of validity of the amending Directive, neither history nor technical development of firearms is likely to stop after that date. (8 a) The following Article 10c is inserted:

Article 10c

Member States shall take measures to ensure that long semi-automatic firearms including firearms which have been converted from originally automatic firearms cannot be reconverted into automatic firearms. Mechanical design of any particular type of long semi-automatic firearms including conversions of any particular type of originally automatic firearms into semi-automatic firearms must be authorised for civilian use by a competent public authority before being placed on the market.

If a Member State does not establish a competent authority, Member States shall make arrangements for exercise of authorisation by a competent authority established by the other Member State in order to ensure that the mechanical design or modifications made to a firearm make a conversion into automatic firearm impossible.

The Commission shall adopt minimum technical standards and techniques to ensure that semi-automatic firearms including firearms which have been converted from originally automatic firearms cannot be converted into automatic firearms. Those implementing acts shall be adopted in accordance with the examination procedure referred to in Article 13b(2).

Amendment

7. Semi-automatic firearms for civilian use which resemble weapons with automatic mechanisms; deleted

Or. en

Justification

The definition of B7 fire arms does not enable a clear understanding as to which fire arms would be covered by the suggested ban. The commission in fact acknowledges that it does not know which fire arms would be covered by the proposed ban. I would suggest that not knowing what you want to ban undermines any following argument as to why it should be banned. Furthermore mere resemblance with automatic weapons does not in and of itself imply that these weapons would be more dangerous. It is recalled that B7 weapons can only be held under licence and that the commission have presented no clear indications as to how banning these fire arms would increase security. Therefore this proposal should be firmly rejected.

5. Firearms under categories A, B and points 1 to 4 of category C, after having been converted to alarm, signal, salute, acoustic, gas, paintball or airsoft, Flobert, or percussion lock weapons.

Or. en

Justification

We see no reason for alarm and signal weapons, salute and acoustic weapons to be included in category C, if they were originally produced as such (i.e. not by conversion from live ammunition). Provided that they have been approved and homologated to enter the market (which typically also includes safety checks), they should stay outside of the scope of the Directive. Regarding firearms converted to alarm, signal weapons etc., this proposal aims to close the loophole that was probably previously used by terrorists and criminals, who converted them back to live ammunition. Including them in category C acts as a preventive measure from their conversion back to the original state, as making them subject to declaration would make them traceable, and therefore uninteresting for committing crimes.

Jussi Halla-aho, Richard Sulík, Tomáš Zdechovský, Anders Primdahl Vistisen, Kristina Winberg, Bernd Kölmel, Branislav Škripek, Beatrix von Storch, Hannu Takkula

Proposal for a directive

Article 1 – paragraph 1 – point 13 – point a – point iii

Directive 91/477/EEC

Annex I – part II – point A – Category C – point 6

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

6. Firearms under category B and points
1 to 5 of category C, after having been deactivated. deleted

Or. en

Justification

As regards deactivated firearms, these pose no appreciable threat to public order and internal security if deactivated properly.

Amendment 261

Cecilia Wikström, Maite Pagazaurtundúa Ruiz

Proposal for a directive

Article 1 – paragraph 1 – point 13 – point a – point iii a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(iii a) Category D - Other firearms, is replaced by the following

Single-short long firearms with smooth-bore barrels as well as replicas

Or. en

Justification

Given that the definition of replicas could have a very broad reach it would be suggested to at least move replicas to category D in order not to require notification of them to the authorities

Amendment 262
Kristina Winberg
Proposal for a directive
Article 1 – paragraph 1 – point 14
Directive 91/477/EEC
Annex I – part III

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

14. Del III i bilaga I till direktiv 91/477/EEG ska ändras på följande sätt:

utgår

a) Led a ska utgå.

b) Led b ska ersättas med följande:

‘är gjorda för livräddning, djurslakt eller harpunfiske eller för industriellt eller tekniskt bruk, förutsatt att de bara kan användas i ett sådant syfte.’

c) Andra stycket ska utgå.

Or. sv

Justification

Den föreslagna ändringen skulle medföra men för vissa medlemsstaters totalförsvarförmåga.

Amendment 263

Proposal for a directive

Article 1 – paragraph 1 – point 14 – point a

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(a) point (a) is deleted;

deleted

Or. en

Justification

A reversal to the current wording Directive in accordance with the proposals above. Again, deactivated firearms pose no appreciable threat to public order and internal security if deactivated properly, and should therefore be outside the scope of the Directive. Reversal to the current wording, i.e.: "(a) have been rendered permanently unfit for use by deactivation, ensuring that all essential parts of the firearm have been rendered permanently inoperable and incapable of removal, replacement or a modification that would permit the firearm to be reactivated in any way;"

Amendment 264

Frank Engel

Proposal for a directive

Article 1 – paragraph 1 – point 14 – point c

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(c) the second subparagraph is deleted.

deleted

Or. en

Justification

A reversal to the current wording Directive in accordance with the proposals above, i.e.: "Member States shall make arrangements for the deactivation measures referred to in point (a) to be verified by a competent authority in order to ensure that the modifications made to a firearm render it irreversibly inoperable. Member States shall, in the context of this verification, provide for the issuance of a certificate or record attesting to the deactivation of the firearm or the apposition of a clearly visible mark to that effect on the firearm. The Commission shall, acting in accordance with the procedure referred to in Article 13a(2) of the Directive, issue common guidelines on deactivation standards and techniques to ensure that deactivated firearms are rendered irreversibly inoperable."
